Question no. 4:- "Essay"

"Women's Place"

"In Our Society"

Man and woman are the two parts of a whole. One is incomplete without the other.

"And We have created you in Pairs"
(The Holy Quran).

The existence of one without the other would be colourless and boring. The need of the one for the other is so great that it was honoured even in heaven when Eve was created for Adam. Moreover the union of the both is necessary for the human survival and they are a complete source of joy and comfort for each other. It is said that man is the crown of the universe, but it is woman who adorns this crown with his charms.

“O Fairest of creation!
Last and best of all God's works!”
(John Milton).

•) In Islamic Society, women are treated with utmost honour. She has the honour of being a mother, a wife, a sister and a daughter. No other religion gives her as much respect as Islam does. But contrary to our belief in rural areas of Pakistan, women do not get the chances of education. They are maltreated and disrespected in the man dominated society. They are forced to work in the fields with men. Their life is miserable in villages.

•) It would not be out of place to ask women not to neglect their duties at home. She should also be a good mother, a loving and caring wife, an ideal house keeper and a matchless patriot. In this regard her duty is too fold. She will have to perform her duties in the house as well as outside the house.

Gone are days when man used to be the sole bread-winners of the family. Now a days man and woman both need to go out for earning, for the prosperity of their family and to meet with the expense of modern life. At present, women is as important as men. Without active participation of the woman the social progress will remain eclipsed. So women in our society, will always occupy a place of paramount importance.

"No nations can rise to the height of Glory unless your women are side-by-side with you."

(Quaid-e-Azam M.A. Jinnah)
