Q2: question answers.

(i) According to Harry there are many ways one can bring merriment to the tired old human heart. By painting, writing a book, composing a symphony or by inventing a philosophy. He himself has invented a philosophy 'Take it easy'.

(ii) Miss McCutcheon is looking for a chance to teach and make her mark as a good teacher. She feels that the children of the town do not care about anything except games and the sea. The children seem to have no ambition, it's all fun and play for them.

(iii) Harry describes the people of O.K. by the Sea to Miss McCutcheon as poor. And that they cannot afford to pay for the haircut he gives them. A few people find jobs a couple of months every year and only a few get pensions. Every family has a garden and few chickens and they make money by selling vegetables and eggs. In a town of thousand people, there is not one rich man.

Q5: Reference to Context.

We are the hollow men....

Reference: These lines have been taken from the poem "The Hollow Men" by T.S. Eliot.

Context: "The Hollow Men" is an elegy on the twentieth century European man. The poem laments aimlessness, spiritual barrenness, materialistic attitude and moral degradation of modern man and Modern man's incapability to take the right decision.

Explanation:

In his extreme disappointment the poet T.S. Eliot has termed the 20th century man as hollow man, hollow from within. The twentieth century man is unnatural, stuffed and has gone spiritually dead. The modern man has become a pathetic picture, a paralyzed force. It has made his actions as ineffective and his speech as meaningless as wind in dry grass or rats' feet over broken glass. He is hollow from within and his soul has gone dead. A living corpse. The poet urges the modern man to adopt a positive attitude and to act to cope with the challenges he faces in life.

Q5: (b) punctuation.

“Do you not perceive?” answered the camel-man. “I wished to show you that what is good for camels is not therefore good for poor old men and women.”

Precede: We were preceded by our guide.

(ii) Raise: He raised her salary.

Raze: The storm razed many buildings to the ground.

(iii) Suit: He wore his most expensive suit to the conference.

Soot: The soot fell from inside the chimney.

Q6: urdu translation.

جب وہ ان سے آگے نکل گیا تو اس نے پکار کر کہا: "تم کتنے احمق لوگ ہو! میں ایک بوڑھی عورت سے ملا جو تمہارے اونٹ کی طرح گٹھلی میں مبتلا تھی، اور میں نے اس کے گلے میں کمبل باندھا اور اس پر چادر ماری، لیکن اس کے بجائے تمہاری اونٹنی کی طرح صحت یاب ہو کر وہ مر گئی اور میں فیس لینے کے بجائے اس کی قبر کھودنے پر مجبور ہو گیا!"

"یہ ہم بیوقوف نہیں ہیں،" اونٹ والوں نے جواب دیا، "بلکہ تم، ہم بالکل بھی بیوقوف نہیں ہیں۔ جانور شاندار سائز اور طاقت کے اونٹ ہیں۔ ایک کمزور بوڑھی عورت کیسے کھڑی تھی؟ ایک مالٹ کی؟ نہیں یہ تم ہو، اور صرف تم ہی، جو بیوقوف ہو۔"
