Meaning :-

The Arabic word زكاة has been derived from زكى which means "to purify". By giving Zakat, the giver's heart is purified from the love of wealth.

Definition :-

Hazrat Muhammad (S.A.W) described Zakat as wealth taken from the rich and given to the poor. Zakat, the back bone of the economic system of Islam, is also called poor-rate or poor-tax. It is really a welfare tax.

:(ii):

Meaning:-

The literal meaning of the word "Hajj" (حج) is the will and desire to visit.

Definition:-

In the terminology of shariah, it means the will to visit the Holy Kaabah which was the first structure built by Hazrat Adam for the worship of Allah Almighty."

:(iii):

Legitimate of Zakat

Allah Almighty has determined the legitimate heads for distribution of Zakat. Allah Almighty say in Holy Quran:

"As-Sadagaat (here it means Zakat) are only for the Fugara (poor), and Al-masakin (the poor) and those employed to collect (the funds); and to attract the hearts of those who have been inclined (towards Islam) and to free the captives and for those in debt and for Allahs cause (i.e. for Mujahidun - those fighting in holy battle), and for the way farer (a traveler who is cut off from everything). a duty imposed by Allah and Allah All-knower, Allwise.
