

Palette = They used flat shoulder bone of animals as palette for making colours.

Brushes and Application of Colours

first they used finger to apply colors. later on the chewed tree branches were used as brush. they also used birds feather but the best one they could find was animals skin hair. they used to tie animal hair in hollow bones and make brushes. These hollow bones were also filled with colors and were blown for spray paints.